08.11.2019

Inspector General of Police,
To all District Secretaries and Divisional Secretaries.

Payments of Disability Pension for Police Officers

The cabinet has approved to pay the disability pension for the disabled officers in the Department of Police irrespective to the 50/60 limit without exceeding the 100% limit of the salary computed for the pension at the cabinet meeting held on 2019.10.09.

Accordingly, the actions should be taken as follows.

1. Such payments should consider as effective from 08.01.2018. (Since the cabinet approval has been granted to pay the disability pension similar to the payments of tri forces as per pension circular No. 9/2008 ( revision II)
2. The divisional secretary should maintain records of disability pension and service pension in single file and such files should be marked specially for ease of identification.
3. Applications under these provisions should process through the AR system under the reason 'Police Disable Allowances AB'. (Scanned copies of pension award and disability award should forward online with the AR application). Approved allowances will be attached to payment records separately under DSA.
4. Actions should be taken to obtain a clarification from me in an every event where a problem emerges on this regards.

5. This circular is issued with the concurrence of the Secretary to the Public Administration, Home Affairs, Provincial Councils and Local Government.
