To all Secretaries of Ministries,
Chief Secretaries of Provincial Councils,
Heads of Departments,
District Secretaries/ Divisional Secretaries,

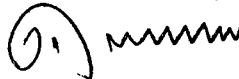

Re-employment of retired public officers and revision of pension

"Pension of officers re-employed in a pensionable post after break in service should be revised hypothetical basis on revised salary drew at the date of retirement from the reemployed post."

Pension of officers re-employed under above proviso of section 2 a b of Minutes on Pension may be revised. Monthly allowance and other facilities applicable to retired public officers re-employed in terms of Public Administration Circular 9/2007 have been decided. Accordingly, such officers may be payable only a monthly allowance or an allowance equal to 50% of the last received salary. However it is informed that the pension shall be revised on hypothetical salary entitled to relevant post disregarding the allowance or salary percentage paid them.

Following documents should be submitted to make revise pensions.

1. Application perfected by the re-employed officers in terms of section 2 a b of Minutes on Pension. (attached)
2. Revised salary particulars and salary conversion sheets
3. Appointment letter of re-employment
4. Letter of concluding the service
