GENERAL BUSINESS CONDITIONS

1. SCOPE OF APPLICATION

1.1 SCOPE

These General Business Conditions (hereinafter referred to as "General Conditions" where applicable and which term shall include the terms, conditions and rules for Electronic Banking Services, Current Accounts, Term Deposit Accounts and Savings Accounts contained herein) will apply to the Customers accounts, dealings and transactions with the Pan Asia Banking Corporation PLC (Reg No. PQ 48) and its successors and assigns and which term includes any branch office (hereinafter referred to as "the Bank"), save and except those in respect of which separate agreements are entered into by the Customer with the Bank without reference to these presents. These General Conditions govern the entire business relations (including, without limitation, forward contracts, swaps, options and any derivative transactions) between the Customer and the Bank.

In addition, particular business relations (including but not limited to securities transactions, use of cheques, current, savings or deposit accounts) may be governed by Special Conditions, which may be agreed between the Customer and the Bank from time to time. In the event of any conflict between these General Conditions and such Special Conditions, the Special Conditions shall prevail.

1.2 AMENDMENTS

Any amendments of these General Conditions and any Special Conditions will be notified to the Customer in writing. They shall be deemed to have been approved unless the Customer objects thereto in writing within a period of thirty (30) days from the date of such notification. The notification of such amendments by the Bank shall expressly draw the Customer's attention to this consequence.

2. KEEPING OF ACCOUNTS

2.1 PERIODIC BALANCE STATEMENTS

2.1.1 Issue of periodic balance statements

Unless otherwise agreed upon, the Bank will issue periodic balance statements for the Customer's account(s) at such intervals to be determined by the Bank.

2.1.2 Time allowed for objections

Any objections a Customer may have concerning the incorrectness or incompleteness of a periodic balance statement received by the Customer must be raised promptly, but in any event must be received by the Bank in writing within thirty (30) days following receipt of such statement. In the absence of any objections within the period specified above the periodic statement shall be deemed to be correct and binding on the Customer.

2.2 REVERSE ENTRIES AND CORRECTIONS MADE BY THE BANK

Incorrect credit entries to any accounts may be reversed, corrected or cancelled by the Bank through a debit entry ("reverse entry") whether prior to or after the issue of the next periodic balance statement. The Bank will without undue delay notify the Customer of any reverse entry made. With respect to the calculation of interest (or other return), the Bank shall effect the entries retroactively as of the day on which the incorrect entry was made.

2.3 OVERDRAWN AMOUNTS

The Bank may at its discretion (without being obliged to do so) extend credit, grant financial accommodation or advance moneys to the Customer for the purpose of meeting any payment or carrying out any instruction, in which event any liabilities owing pursuant thereto (i) shall be repayable by the Customer on the Bank's demand (unless otherwise agreed to by the Bank in writing) and (ii) shall bear interest at such mutually agreed rate (or in the absence of such agreement, at such rate as the Bank may reasonably determine in accordance with its internal procedures).

2.4 COLLECTION ORDERS

2.4.1 Conditional credit entries effected upon presentation of documents

If the Bank credits the counter value of cheques, other instruments and direct debits prior to their payment, this is done on condition of punctual payment in full, even if these items are payable at the Bank itself. If the Customer submits or surrenders other items, instructing the Bank to collect an amount due from a debtor (e.g. interest coupons), and if the Bank effects a credit for such amount, this is done on condition that the Bank will obtain the amount in good funds. This condition shall also apply if the items are payable at the Bank itself. If cheques, instruments, items or direct debits are not paid or if the Bank does not obtain the amount under the collection order the Bank will be entitled to cancel the conditional credit entry and/or debit any account of the Customer (including for interest and costs) regardless of whether or not a periodic balance statement has been issued in the meantime.

2.4.2 Payment of direct debits and cheques made out by the Customer

Direct debits and cheques are paid if the debit entry has not been cancelled in accordance with the Bank's normal procedures. Cheques payable in cash are deemed to have been paid once their amount has been paid to the presenting party. Cheques are also deemed to have been paid upon the Bank honoring them or as soon as the Bank dispatches an advice of payment (whichever shall occur first). The aforesaid procedures may be subject to change by the Bank from time to time.

2.5 RISKS INHERENT IN FOREIGN CURRENCY ACCOUNTS AND TRANSACTIONS

2.5.1 Execution of orders relating to foreign currency accounts

Foreign currency accounts of the Customer serve to effect the cashless settlement of payments and disposals by the Customer in foreign currency. Disposals of credit balances on foreign currency accounts (e.g. by means of transfer orders to the debit of the foreign currency credit balance) are settled through or by banks in the home country of the currency unless the Bank (at its discretion) executes them directly within its own organization.

2.5.2 Credit entries for foreign currency transactions with the Customer

If the Bank concludes a transaction with the Customer (e.g. a forward exchange transaction) under which it is obliged to pay an amount in a foreign currency, it will discharge its foreign currency obligation by crediting the account of the Customer in the respective currency, unless otherwise agreed upon.

2.5.3 Remittance

- (a) A remittance/draft is to be dispatched entirely at the applicant's risk,
- (b) The Bank will normally convert the remitted funds into the currency of the remittance on the day such funds are actually received at the Bank's selling rate. However, the dates of conversion and transfer are entirely at the Bank's discretion.
- (c) In case of cancellation of a remittance, refund is to be made only on the basis of the amount actually received from the correspondents, and at the Bank's buying rate on the day of refund. The Bank is entitled to reimbursement for the expenses so incurred on itself and its correspondents or agents. All cancellation/postage charges, stamp duty, turnover tax or any such levies and commissions collected are not refundable.
- (d) The Bank shall not be liable for any loss or damage due to delay in payment, or in giving advice of payment, loss of items in transit or otherwise, mutilation, error, omission, interruption, or delay in transmission or delivery of any items, letter, telex, telegram or the actions of the Bank's correspondents or agents.

2.5.4 Temporary limitation of performance by the Bank

The Bank's duty to execute a disposal/ payment / transfer order to the debit of a foreign currency credit balance (under paragraph 2.5.1) or to discharge a foreign currency obligation (under paragraph 2.5.2) shall be suspended to the extent that and for as long as the Bank cannot or can only restrictedly dispose of / pay / transfer the currency in which the foreign currency credit balance or the obligation is denominated, due to any event beyond the Bank's control, including force majeure. To the extent that and for as long as any such measure or event persists, the Bank is not obligated either to perform at some other place outside the country of the respective currency, in some other currency (including local currency) or by providing cash (though the Bank may in its discretion choose to do so). The right of the Bank to set off claims due in the same currency against each other shall not be affected by the above provisions.

2.5.5 Customer's risk

The Customer enters into each foreign currency transaction with full awareness that foreign currency transaction could involve foreign exchange risks for which the Bank shall not be responsible.

3. DUTIES OF THE CUSTOMER

3.1 CLARITY OF ORDERS

Orders of any kind must be timely, clear and unequivocal in their contents. The Bank may but shall not have an obligation to make inquiries and verify any unclear orders and will not be liable for any delay caused by such inquiries. In particular, when giving orders to credit an account (e.g. transfer orders), the Customer must ensure the correctness and completeness of the name of the payee, as well as of the account number and, where applicable, the payee's bank code number. Amendments, confirmations or repetitions, of orders must be designated as such.

3.2 SPECIAL REFERENCE TO URGENCY IN CONNECTION WITH THE EXECUTION OF ORDERS

If a Customer requires particularly prompt execution of an order (e.g. because a money transfer must be credited to the payee's account by a certain date), the Customer shall notify the 'Bank' of this requirement separately. For orders given on a printed form, such a notice must be given separately from the form.

3.3 EXECUTION OF, AND OBJECTIONS TO, NOTIFICATIONS RECEIVED FROM THE BANK

The Customer must immediately examine statements of account (other than the periodic balance statement which would be governed by paragraph 2.1.1) transaction statements, statements of securities and of investment income, other statements, advices of execution of orders, and information on expected payments and consignments as to their correctness and completeness and immediately notify the Bank in writing of any objection and in the absence of any objection in the manner set out above the aforesaid statements, advices and information shall be deemed to be correct and binding on the Customer.

3.4 NOTICE TO THE BANK IN CASE OF NON-RECEIPT OF STATEMENTS

The Customer must notify the Bank immediately in writing if any periodic balance statement referred to in paragraph 2.1.1 and/or any other statement or advice or information is not received.

The Bank shall be entitled at any time when it deems necessary to require the Customer to provide security for any liabilities of the Customer (whether present, future, unmatured, conditional or contingent) to the Bank and where any security has been provided by the Customer, the Bank shall be entitled to require substitute or additional security if in its opinion (a) the security provided ceases to be in full force and effect or shall become or threatens to become unenforceable or inadequate in value or be in jeopardy, or (b) any circumstance occurs or becomes known which justifies a higher risk assessment of the claims against the Customer or a greater security margin.

6.1.2 Changes in the risk

If the Bank, upon the creation of claims against the Customer, has initially dispensed wholly or partly with requiring that security be provided or increased, it may nonetheless make such a demand at a later time.

6.1.3 Setting a time period for providing or increasing security

The Bank will allow a reasonable time (as determined by the Bank) to provide or increase security.

6.2 SECURITY INTERESTS IN ITEMS FOR COLLECTION AND DISCOUNTED BILLS OF EXCHANGE

6.2.1 Transfer of ownership by way of security

The Bank acquires ownership by way of security of any cheques and bills of exchange deposited for collection at the time such items are deposited. The Bank acquires absolute ownership of discounted bills of exchange at the time of the purchase of such items; if it re-debits discounted bills of exchange to the account, it retains the ownership by way of security in such bills of exchange.

6.2.2 Assignment by way of security

The claims underlying the cheques and bills of exchange shall pass to the Bank simultaneously with the acquisition of ownership in the cheques and bills of exchange; the claims also pass to the Bank if other items are deposited for collection (e.g. direct debits, documents of commercial trading).

6.2.3 Special-purpose items for collection

If items for collection are deposited with the Bank expressly and clearly under the reserve that their counter value may only be used for a specified purpose, the transfer or assignment of ownership by way of security does not extend to these items.

6.2.4 Secured claims of the Bank

The ownership transferred or assigned by way of security serves to secure any claims which the Bank may be entitled to against the Customer arising from the Customer's account when items are deposited for collection or arising as a consequence of the re-debiting of unpaid items for collection or discounted bills of exchange. Upon request of the Customer, the Bank re-transfers to the Customer the ownership by way of security of such items and of the claims that have passed to it if it does not, at the time of such request, have any claims against the Customer that need to be secured or if it does not permit the Customer to dispose, of the counter value of such items prior to their final payment. Nothing herein shall be construed as imposing on the Bank any obligation to discount cheques/bills of exchange.

6.3 LIMITATION OF THE CLAIM TO SECURITY AND OBLIGATION TO RELEASE

If the realisable value of all Security exceeds the amount required by the Bank the Bank may at its sole discretion release specific security items so as to eliminate such excess.

6.4 REALISATION OF SECURITY

If the Customer fails to or does not pay any sum or provide cash cover or security, then whether or not any contingent or other obligation or liability owing by the Customer to the Bank shall have actually matured, the Bank may without demand for payment or notice to any person, sell, realise or otherwise dispose of (including making any currency conversion) any of the Customer's assets in such manner and on such terms as the Bank may in its absolute discretion think fit. Neither the Bank nor any of its agents shall be responsible in any way for any loss which may be occasioned in exercising the aforesaid power of sale or disposal, and the Bank shall not be liable for the actions or omissions of any broker, auctioneer, agent or other person employed by the Bank in connection with such sale or disposal.

7. SET-OFF AND LIEN

7.1 AGREEMENT ON LIEN/SET-OFF

The Customer and the Bank agree that the Bank acquires a lien and/or security right on any securities and properties which have come or may come into the possession of the Bank. The above is without prejudice to any general or banker's lien or right of set-off or other right to which the Bank may be entitled. The Customer undertakes to do such act or sign such document required by the Bank for the purpose herein.

7.2 SECURED CLAIMS

The lien and security right serves to secure all existing future and contingent claims arising from the banking relations (whether arising under these General Conditions, any Special Condition or in respect of any agreement or transaction, whether actual, future or contingent, as principal, surety or otherwise, and in whatever currency) which the Bank is entitled to against the Customer.

Provided however, that any such termination shall not affect the rights which have accrued to the Bank prior to such termination.

9.1.2 Termination for reasonable cause

If the Bank and the Customer have agreed on a term or a termination provision for a particular business relation, such relation may only be terminated with reasonable prior written notice if there is reasonable and material cause therefor which makes it clearly unacceptable to the Customer to continue the business relation, after having given due consideration to the legitimate concerns of the Bank. Any termination by the Customer as aforesaid shall not affect in any manner the Bank's right to claim for damages that it may suffer or incur (including fund breaking cost and damages for breach of contract).

9.1.3 Termination rights of the Bank

(a) Termination upon notice

Upon giving a notice, which in the Bank's opinion is reasonable, the Bank may at any time terminate the business relations as a whole or any particular relation for which neither a term nor a termination provision has been agreed in writing. Provided however, that any such termination shall not affect the rights which have accrued to the Bank prior to such termination.

(c) Termination for reasonable cause without notice

Termination of the business relations as a whole or of particular relation without notice is permitted if there is reasonable cause, which makes it unacceptable to the Bank to continue the business relations after having given due consideration to the known legitimate concerns of the Customer. Such cause is present in particular (a) if the Customer has made incorrect statements as to the Customer's financial status, provided such statements were of significant importance for the Bank's decision concerning the granting of the credit or other operations involving risks of the Bank, or (b) if a substantial deterioration occurs or threatens to occur in the Customer's financial status, jeopardizing the discharge of obligations towards the Bank, or (c) if the Customer fails to comply with any obligation (including the obligation to provide or increase security within the required time limit and according to these General Conditions or to the provisions of some other agreement) or (d) if there occurs any circumstance or event which in the Bank's opinion (entered into reasonably and in good faith) would materially affect its willingness to carry on any relationship with the Customer. Provided however, that any such termination shall not affect the rights which have accrued to the Bank prior to such termination.

(d) Settlement following termination

Upon termination of the business relations or facilities, all amounts and obligations owing by the Customer to the Bank shall become due and payable immediately on demand and all foreign exchange and other derivative transactions between the Bank and the Customer shall be terminated early at the Bank's discretion and become due and payable at the then market value as determined by the Bank. In such cases, the liability of the Bank shall be limited to the careful selection and instruction of the third party.
